Requirements and evaluation criteria

Parts of the entrance examination	Your task	Evaluation	Description and interpretation of the task	Notes
Showcase, background and motivation	Compile and submit an introductory showcase including a CV, and a motivation letter	pre-uploaded online: Yes/No at the interview: No	The purpose of an English-language online showcase/portfolio is to present your professional journey, relevant previous works and background to date. It may contain anything you find important from works completed as part of or separate from organised trainings to professional accomplishments, relevant works, and papers. At least one project presenting your research/work process in addition to the final result should also be included. Please compile the topics you want to present in a well-structured manner, with the titles of the works, the date of their creation and the name of institutions, teammates or mentors involved. The showcase may also include external links related to submitted entries to help the examination committee form an impression of your work. The showcase/portfolio should be in PDF format with a maximum size of 150 MB (naming convention: firstname_lastname.pdf) Please also attach a separate CV in PDF format that includes your educational and professional background. A separate one-page motivation letter in PDF format with no more than 2,000 characters should also be attached, containing the answers to the following questions at a minimum: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● What are your primary learning goals, and why? ● What is your primary focus of interest in interaction design, and why? ● Why do you think you would make a great addition to a team of IxD students with diverse backgrounds? Building highly diverse teams is one of the goals of the programme and for this reason, your background and the values and perspectives you can bring to the team will be an important consideration for the evaluation.	For the evaluation criteria, see Annex 1.
Practical examination	Sit for an interview (approx. 15 minutes)	Maximum score: 99 points	During the admission interview, you will have the opportunity to present your previous work and field of study. Though the purpose of the interview is to learn how you think and to assess your professional competence, the discussion may also include an examination of your vision, as well as your general education and knowledge. Your showcase/portfolio will be displayed and shared on a screen during the interview. Additionally, you can present anything in a physical form, if applicable.	For the evaluation criteria, see Annex 1.
