“GIT’s World Jewelry Design Awards 2022”

Win Cash Prizes and Honored Trophy

Hosted by The Gem and Jewelry Institute of Thailand (Public Organization)

Rationale

The Gem and Jewelry Institute of Thailand (Public Organization) has an objective to support, develop and provide guidance for personnel entering the gem and jewelry market, as well as preparing qualified design training courses. The competition aims to support jewelry design, create awareness amongst the public and provide a stage for new designers to showcase their products to business buyers. Professional designers, entrepreneurs and passionate public from around the world are invited to participate in the competition, where they can unleash their creativity through jewelry design and also encourage knowledge exchange between international designers.

The theme this year is “True Nature – Reveal the Secret of Nature” a jewelry collection that presents the beauty of organic materials from the nature. Participants are encouraged to minimize waste during the production process and/or using innovative techniques to turn waste materials into an interesting design, for example, participants may use unqualified raw gemstones, uncut gems or Redesign a jewelry collection using gemstones from antique jewelry or leftover gemstones (Upcycle).

Objectives

1. To support new designers, students, professional designers, professional designers and passionate public by providing an opportunity to present their designs amongst local and international audience.
2. To support designs that can be produce and trade in the gem and jewelry industry.
3. To gain awareness for jewelry design amongst new Thai designers.
4. To show Thai designer’s potential in jewelry design amongst an international stage
